

For this assignment, please perform the van Holde – Weischet analysis on your deconvoluted SSF-ISSF datasets and save the results to the database, take a screenshot of the analysis window, and also load it into the overlay distributions program (Velocity:Combine Distribution Plots (vHW)) and display both deconvoluted analysis distributions and report the concentrations (with screenshot from the overlay in concentration mode).